Dear Iranian Students,

In the realm of global affairs, we are sure many of you are closely following the events that have recently taken place in Iran. Events such as these often have far-reaching impacts in our interconnected world. The ISSO would like you to know that we care about you, your families, your friends, and your wellbeing.

On behalf of the ISSO’s staff and UNC Charlotte, I wanted to take a minute to reiterate that the University is thinking about you and your loved ones who may be impacted by the recent events in Iran.

Please know that the following University support resources and offices are here to assist you if needed:

- Student Assistance and Support Services website at SASS.charlotte.edu (704-687-0289)
- Counseling and Psychological Services at caps.charlotte.edu (704-687-0311)
- Center for Integrated Care at cic.charlotte.edu (704-687-1045)
- Dean of Students Office at dso.charlotte.edu (704-687-0345)
- Student Health Center at studenthealth.charlotte.edu (704-687-7400)
- International Student and Scholar Office at isso.charlotte.edu (704-687-7781)
- The Center for Graduate Life and Learning at gradlife.charlotte.edu (704-687-7184)

Should you have concerns about the impact of these recent events on your academic coursework, please communicate directly with your academic advisor and instructors.

Again, we are here for you and want to let you know we are thinking of you and your loved ones during these difficult times, and we hope that everyone remains safe.

Sincerely,

Tarek Elshayeb
Director, International Student and Scholar Office
